2. Artist Bio

Matt Zerek began his journey with his first band Rail, where they recorded an EP in 2018 and performed across the region. As a solo artist, Matt went on to play hundreds of shows throughout Europe, from Poland and Spain to Italy and England, sharing his soulful pop-rock sound with audiences abroad. After appearing as a guitarist and backing vocalist on a BBC News programme with a London-based artist and recording his debut solo EP at the legendary Abbey Road Studios, he now steps into the spotlight with his debut single “I’ll Hold Your Hand” (out October 10, 2025), followed by a second single in November and a full EP in early 2026.

4. Press & Highlights

“A 10/10 debut — a soulful voice that stays with you long after the song ends.”

– Early listener feedback

“Beautiful to see a young man on the streets of Paris singing about love.”

– Viewer comment (Music Video)

Matt Zerek is a pop-rock singer and guitarist whose soulful voice and cinematic sound blend emotion with melody. Having toured across Europe and recorded his debut EP at Abbey Road Studios, he now steps into his solo era with “I’ll Hold Your Hand” out October 10, 2025 — ahead of his debut EP in early 2026.
